

Ag Ambassador Application Spring 2021

Ag Ambassador Mission

The mission of the Ag Ambassador group is to promote the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources; raise awareness about degree and career opportunities within the college; serve as the student body voice by sharing your perspective on various issues with the college administration; and communicate your passion for College of Agriculture programs and your personal experiences as a student with alumni, prospective students, current students, and the public.

Membership Requirements

- The student's declared primary major must be in the College of Agriculture & Natural Resources (students with concurrent majors are eligible).
- The student must be a full-time student as defined by the University of Wyoming, and have attended the College of Agriculture & Natural Resources for at least one full semester. Freshman and transfer students may apply for membership during their second and subsequent semesters.
- Undergraduate students must have and maintain a minimum 2.50 cumulative GPA and graduate students must have and maintain a 3.0 cumulative GPA.
- Ambassadors must demonstrate a commitment to furthering their knowledge of the College of Agriculture & Natural Resources and the University of Wyoming through their participation in Ag Ambassador activities.

Expectations

The University of Wyoming, College of Agriculture & Natural Resources Student Ambassador Organization is a select group of students charged by the Dean to promote the College of Agriculture & Natural Resources in various ways, to both external and internal audiences. Ag Ambassadors help promote the College of Agriculture & Natural Resources and the agriculture industry in various ways. Activities include, but are not limited to:

- Prospective student recruitment
- Retention of current students
- Acting as liaisons with the general public
- Participate in alumni and donor relation activities
- Share student experiences with diverse audiences
- Participate in leadership classes and/or conferences

Application Requirements

- Submit the attached application form and a copy of your resume by 5:00 p.m. on Friday April 23, 2020. Your resume should include academic achievements, community service, campus activities, and leadership experience.
- Applicants will be interviewed by a panel as a part of the selection process. You will be contacted to sign up for an interview time after the application deadline. As a part of the interview, students are expected to have a basic knowledge of the University of Wyoming and the College of Agriculture & Natural Resources.
