This month we will be working with yarn and beads. We will use various colors of yarn and different beads to make unique handmade items.

Possible items might include: a tree of life 'wreath'; beaded yarn tassels; pom pom animals; yarn balloon orbs; yarn feathers; etc. The exact techniques will be taught at our Jan meeting based on the materials I can acquire for this activity.

Cost will be $5 per participant to cover costs of materials - yarn, beads, glue, rings, etc.

Any and all are welcome! This will be a fun hands on craft to celebrate the start of a new year.

There is a chance this class could be cancelled. I will be flying to Ohio on the 6th of Jan and if life gets away from me, I may not be able to pull off a class that week. I will notify Mary Louise to post in the Daily Dose and will let anyone who has RSVP'd know as soon as I know. I am planning to keep life status quo so there will hopefully be no cancellation.

Please RSVP to lizwillij@gmail.com in advance so I can be sure to have enough materials on hand.

ALBANY COUNTY - 4H HORSEMANSHIP

LEADER: JOE WOLF (307) 399-7399

Horsemanship has something for every horseman!

What we do:

Classroom

We learn some useful knots, learn basic terminology of the horse: Anatomy, Colors, Tack, etc. We clean and safety check our tack.

Arena

We learn to properly lead and tie your horse, learn to catch and halter your horse, learn to load your horse. We ride, LOTS OF RIDING. We work on the basics, backing up, side passing, overall control. We practice barrels, poles, and trail.

Benefits include:

- ✓ We start at the very beginning so its perfect for those that are just starting.
- ✓ Confidence building for Horse and /or Rider: Anyone who needs some help to have more fun, less fear and less frustration about riding
- ✓ Practice: There is no better way to improve skills than miles in the saddle and spending time with other horsemen.
- ✓ Safety Certifications: We work on safety during the year, working towards a complete safety certification. You don't need to pass the safety cert in order to start horsemanship.

ITEMS NEEDED:

- A Horse
- Tack: Saddle, bridle and halter.
- A way to get your horse to and from practice.
- The desire to improve your horsemanship.

Practice starts January 5th and runs until Fair. Wednesdays 6-8:00pm at the Range Arena (behind Gem City Vet)
