

July 25th - August 2nd, 2020

Dear Fair Families,

CAMPAFI

The Fair Board appreciates your patience and understanding with their difficult decisions adjusting our 2020 Fair in response to the current health concerns. The following information will be what to expect during our Fair and please be prepared for possible location changes as we adjust to the spacing needed to setup events. Please review the *UPDATED* 2020 Fair Schedule for some event changes. Website - https://www.ccgov.net/959/County-Fair

CANCELLATIONS Demolition Derby Pig Wrestling Open Class Static Exhibits Open Class Static Exhibits Open Class Livestock Shows Entertainment Trade Show Pioneer Dinner Kansas City BBQ Concert Dachshund Races Sheep Lead Mini Animal Show Youth Dance

All Livestock will arrive on Monday evening through Tuesday at noon and livestock pens will be grouped by families. If possible, an empty livestock pen will be left between family groups. Beef, Sheep, Dairy, Goats, & Llamas will be housed in East Pavilion with an outside showring. Swine will be housed in Central Pavilion with an outside showring covered with a tent. Chicken & Rabbits will be housed and show in WY Center – Spirit Hall. The outside showrings will not have seating available and spectators are encouraged to bring chairs for seating. Superintendents will check in exhibitors with the directive for the current health guidelines for screening. Exhibitors and families will be responsible for sanitizing their livestock space within their designated areas, barns and tie outs. Exhibitors will be encouraged to wear masks. Sanitizing stations will be available throughout the barns and grounds.

All 4-H/FFA Static Exhibits arrive on Monday during 4-H Interview Judging and will be set-up for viewing in the WY Center, Equality & Frontier Hall. The 4-H Office will have tags for projects available to pick up from July 21st – July 24th at the Extension Office. Superintendents will check in exhibitors with the directive for the current health guidelines for screening. There will be signs throughout the building reminding guests to social distance, not to enter if sick, not to touch any exhibits and mask wearing will be encouraged. There will be sanitizer available at the door and staff will be assigned to monitor the projects during scheduled times the Halls are open.

The Campground will be open for exhibitors and their guardians. All campers will be encouraged to stay in their own camp spaces and to maintain social distancing from non-family members. The campground will be monitored to minimize large gatherings of more than twenty-five.

Food Vendors will be allowed with the adherence to the State Guidelines set forth by the State Health Department. Food trucks and trailers will be spaced out to allow for social distancing. Dining areas will be reduced and spread out with staff on hand to sanitize between patrons.

The Youth Livestock Sale will be held in Central Pavilion with bleacher seating for the Buyers only and areas marked off for social distancing.

Regular announcements will be made encouraging hand washing, social distancing, mask wearing and not to touch nose, face and mouth. We will recommend that volunteers and staff to wear PPE and will have daily health checks/screenings. Signs will be placed throughout buildings and grounds asking to social distance, wash hands, wear masks and not to enter if sick.

Contact the Fair Office at 307-687-0200 with any questions.

Thank you, Liz Edwards

**CAMPING AT FAIR**

 FEE: A fee of $100 will be charged for each camper space during the Campbell County Fair. Spaces can be rented through the Campbell County Fair Office.
 SPACE: All campers must keep their space litter free and in a sanitary condition.
 Rowdiness, profanity or vandalism will not be tolerated. The Fair Board reserves the right to dismiss any offender for reasons satisfactory to itself, without refund. Parents/legal guardians are responsible for their children at all times. All exhibitors camping during Fair MUST have a parent/guardian in the camper to supervise kids during the evening hours of Fair and overnight. Guardians must be of legal age. See Dog Rules on page 12.

3. QUIET HOURS: There will be no congregating in any part of the campground past 11:30 pm Sunday through Thursday and 12:00 pm midnight on Friday and Saturday. All kids must be in their campers with the radios and TV's turned down. Parents/guardians must be in the camper at this time.

4. CAMPER REGISTRATION: Camping is only allowed in Fair Board designated areas and must be registered through the Fair Office. Violators will be towed at owner's expense. Reservations for campground can be made after January 1st of the current year by calling the Fair Office at 307-687-0200. Prior to parking camper, please check in with the Campground Superintendent or the Fair Office. Payment is due at the time of parking.

Once payment is received the Campground Superintendent or Fair Office will issue a camping permit that has the contact information and phone number. The camping permit must be posted on the outside of the camper and be easily readable for emergency contact.

**GENERAL POLICIES****

All barns will be locked at 9:00 pm each night. All feeding must be done prior to this time. No Exceptions.

Junior members must accompany, care for and exhibit their own livestock at the Campbell County Fair.

All feed must be stored outside of the building.

Fitting is to be done by 4-H or FFA members ONLY

**VISUAL ARTS****

Hanging Exhibits: Posters, pictures, artwork and photography exhibits should come with a method for hanging. They will be displayed on hooks that will be hung on peg boards. If the item cannot be hung, they will be displayed on the floor or table. Display Boards and posters must be able to stand on their "own" on a table or floor. The Campbell County Fair Board is not responsible for breakage due to inadequate display method.

No breakable glass allowed/use of plexiglass or shrink wrap is allowed. Failure to exhibit items in an appropriate manner will be disqualified. Example: must follow the 4-H Photography & Visual Arts display quidelines brochure found at the Extension Office or https://www.ccgov.net/262/4-HForms-Registrations.

Display Materials: 1. Foam Board - Mounted securely on a stiff foam board. 2. Matting -Picture mounted securely to frame and board on back. 3. Frame - Not suggested. If you choose to use a frame, light weight is preferred.

Hanging Options: 1. Punched Holes - Hanging hole at top center. It should be 1/2" down from the board's top and about 1/2" in diameter. 2. Wire or String - Firmly attached to the top two corners with wire strung from one side to the other. Do Not tape to the corners. 3. Hook - Small Wire command hooks at top center. DO NOT USE: Weak string, yarn, pipe cleaners, pop top tabs, coat hangers or tape!

**Fabric and Fashion** All Fabric and Fashion items will be judged on Tuesday July 28th Style Show will be Wednesday July 29th.

Every Fabric and Fashion item must have an identification label SEWN into the garment. Labels are available at the Extension Office. Do not pin the labels in the garment.

All garments considered for wool awards must be labeled "Wool" by a tag sewn into the garment.

REMINDER

**Warning System at Fair **

EXHIBIT/LIVESTOCK AREAS: The Campbell County Fair Board will utilize the Warning system in Exhibit/Livestock areas. The Warning system will work as follows for not following animal care rules (feeding/watering/tie in and tie out times) or exhibiting cleanliness.

The warning system will consist of a three-step process. Superintendents are deemed authority given by the Campbell County Fair Board to issue warnings as follows:

Yellow Card: If there is a violation of proper animal husbandry ethics, a yellow card will be attached to the stall/cage/exhibit area. The yellow card means attention needs to be given to either feed and water, or cleanliness of stall/cage, alley or tack areas.

Orange Card: If a second warning is to be given for not taking care of the issue or found in violation a second warning, Orange Card, will be attached to the stall/cage/exhibit area.

Red Card: When a Red Card is deemed necessary, a Campbell County Fair Board member and the Department Superintendent will ask the exhibitor to remove their animal(s)/exhibit from the grounds. Receiving a Red Card will result in forfeiture of premiums and Youth Livestock Sale privileges.

Sheep and Goats

Scrapies Tag: All exhibition sheep and goats must be tagged with a USDA/APHIS scrapies tag/ID. Those without scrapies identification will not be allowed on the Fairgrounds Weigh Ins: All lambs must have been totally slick shorn within 5 days of weigh in.

Market goats must be uniformly slick shorn with 3/8 inch of hair or less at the time of weigh-in. Legs may have hair up to the hock and knee only.

INFORMATION

Exhibition & Show Swine Import Requirements

As a reminder, it is a state of Wyoming and a Federal (USDA-APHIS) rule that all swine entering the state must be officially identified, must have a certificate of veterinary health inspection and a WLSB entry permit before coming into Wyoming. Compliance with these rules is mandatory for all importers of swine, and violations will be addressed. WLSB import requirements can be found on the WLSB website at http://soswy.state.wy.us/Rules/ RULES/8634.pdf.

All swine must have a certificate of veterinary inspection, issued in the previous thirty (30) days, showing a permit obtained from the Wyoming Livestock Board, within the previous ten (10) days. All swine imported will be placed under quarantine on the farm of destination for a Pseudorabies re-test to be completed within thirty (30) to sixty (60) days after import.

Wyoming will not accept swine that have moved through more than one market in the last thirty (30) days prior to arrival in Wyoming.

All swine must be individually identified with ear tags, breed association-approved ear notches to tattoos are acceptable identification for purebred breeding swine.

Brucellosis: Swine for exhibition purposes entering Wyoming must originate directly from a validated Brucellosisfree herd or state, or if over 3 months of age, be negative to the Brucellosis card test within thirty (30) days prior to date of entry (test must be by state -- federal approved laboratory). Pseudorabies: Swine for exhibition purposes must originate from a Qualified Pseudorabies Negative Herd or Stage 5 or 4 state and further, must be transported directly from the Qualified Pseudorabies premise or Stage 5 or 4 with no stops, drop-offs, pick-ups, at any site that is not a Qualified Pseudorabies Negative premises and will be quarantined on arrival for Pseudorabies re-test thirty (30) to sixty (60) days from date of entry.

Swine not originating from a qualified Pseudorabies negative herd stage 4 or 5 state, must be tested for Pseudorabies within thirty (30) days prior to entry and will entry Wyoming under quarantine and isolation from all other swine for re-test no sooner than thirty (30) days and no longer than sixty (60) days from date of entry.

NOTE: All swine brought into the state for purpose of resale for 4H and FFA projects will be quarantined to the person holding the sale, or the Wyoming individual importing the animals. It is the responsibility of the sale management or the importer to notify this office with complete names and addresses of all buyers and the swine's destination. This information will also include the individual identification of the swine received. After this office receives the above information and after all swine are accounted for, the notice of quarantine will be lifted from sale management or the original importer. New quarantines will be issued to the new buyers.

If you purchased your swine from out of state please bring your orange paper to Fair check-ins with you.

1. To enter exhibits in the Campbell County Fair first go to https://www.ccgov.net/1536/Youth- Information-Page or https://www.ccgov.net/262/4-H-Forms- Registrations and click on the Enter Here.

2. Select the Sign In icon on the upper right hand side of the screen.

3. Once you have selected Sign In, select "Choose a Type" from the drop down menu. This allows you to select the type of exhibitor.

4. Select "Exhibitor" for an individual.

5. Proceed to fill out the LEGAL first, and last name of the person entering an exhibit.

6. Select "I am a new exhibitor." Even if you have participated in fair in previous years you are still considered a new exhibitor if you have not used ShoWorks for the Campbell County Fair before.

If you would like to enter an entire family or group, select Quick Group and that will allow you to do all the entries for your family under one account.

Type in group user name. Choose a password, retype the password. Put in a valid email so that your receipt will be sent to you. And select the club to start with (You can do 4-H and FFA entries under Quick Group, just make sure for each individual exhibit you have the right club selected.)
