What is Cloverbuds?

Cloverbuds has grown significantly in Campbell County and is a nationwide program to explore the 4-H program before they become 4-H member age.

Cloverbuds is a non-competitive program where youth are involved in a safe and fun environment.

- Uses hands-on learning activities to help kids explore project areas
- Develop life skills that are essential for social, cognitive, emotional, and physical development
- Promotes personal development, healthy lifestyles, and a sense of citizenship
- Make new friends
- Learn to share, work together, compromise, and resolve conflict
- HAVE FUN!

County CB Meetings

Cloverbuds meet on the county level on the 3rd Wednesday of every month from 4-6pm.

The Extension Office will send out information prior to meetings.

Meetings will include a variety of age-appropriate lessons and activities including:

- Animal Science
- Expressive Arts
- Healthy Living
- Leadership & Civic Engagement
- Science & Technology
- Natural Resource Education

Get Involved

To sign up visit the Extension Office located in the George Amos Memorial Building next to the courthouse.

There is a $5 fee for the year that needs to be paid to the Extension Office.

You will need to create a 4-H account.
