The Clover Blast

NOVEMBER 2026

Hello! My name is Savanna Schwenke and I am the new intern here at the University of Wyoming Campbell County Extension Office. I am from here in Gillette, and I have grown up with a strong appreciation for the Western way of life, including horses, ranching, rodeo, and 4-H. I have been a part of 4-H for 6 years, and it has become a big part of who I have become. I enjoy spending time outdoors, working with animals, and being involved in activities that allow me to build new skills and gain experience. I consider myself very friendly, responsible, and a helpful person who always tries to do my best in everything I do. 4-H has helped me come out of my shell and has developed me into the person I am today. I enjoy working with people, helping others, and being part of a team, but I am also comfortable working independently and taking responsibility for my tasks. As I look toward my future, I hope to continue learning, gaining experience, and working toward my goals while making a positive difference in the lives of the people around me.
