4-H Values

Dear 4-H Friends & Families.....

Sportsmanship is developed at a young age through life expectancies and positive reinforcement from parents and other caring adults in their life. It's getting close to our county fair and that means youth will be competing with their 4-H projects. Let's review some sportsmanship guidelines so all youth and adults have positive experiences this summer:

4-H Sportsmanship is defined as:

Displaying respect for animals: This means exercising good animal management through proper healthcare and nutrition, as well as fair training practices. Animals deserve humane treatment in July exchange for what they provide.

Displaying respect for opponents: Sportsmanlike competitors recognize and appreciate a well-prepared, challenging opponent who can bring out the best in them and share that appreciation with their opponents.

Displaying respect for the "game": This includes respecting and following the rules of the event. It also includes always trying one's best, using skill and training to achieve positive results and appreciating the process.

Displaying respect for others: Judges, show managers, parents, superintendents, CWF fair staff, and 4-H Extension/FFA staff, and leaders deserve respect as well. If you are feeling frustrated, it is important to find an appropriate location and time to vent.

Some other things to keep in mind:

Actively praise and congratulate others: Everyone likes to be congratulated for a job well done! For adults and youth to genuinely and actively recognize other youth for their accomplishments, even if it is just "great job out there" or "I love watching you show," it becomes a natural part of the show.

Show Compassion: Even the most successful showman has disappointments and setbacks during their showing careers. All too often we gravitate toward the negative, but reality is that people who are successful have countless hours of hard work and a large emotional investment into their projects. Parents can model good sportsmanship by extending a kind word to others when they are struggling. This creates an environment where people feel cared for, supported and connected. Always Be Kind.

Don't criticize others. The old adage "if you don't have anything nice to say, don't say anything at all" can go a long way. We all have opinions; however, it is up to us how to word those opinions so they don't hurt or disparage anyone else. We may not agree with the judge's placing that day or perhaps we would have managed the show differently, but we must show respect to those people because, after all, they're all people. The beauty of life is that we don't all think and operate the same way. Finding the value in another person's critique of our performance, learning about different ways to manage shows and observing others free from judgment allows us to learn a great deal.

Take care in being your child's biggest fan and greatest analyzer: Finding balance between when to sing your child's praises and when to give them advice on their performance is key. When parents continue singing their child's praises, the child may feel an enormous amount of pressure to not let their parents down. On the flipside, when a youth is constantly and ruthlessly analyzed as to what they could or should have done, the child may begin to feel inadequate and unworthy of praise. Striking the balance between the two is hard; a simple approach is to turn to your child. Ask them how they think they performed. If they were happy, encourage them and enjoy that moment. If they felt they could have improved, offer good support to help them meet their goal.

At any given time, county fair can be exciting, stressful, emotional and exhausting for all involved. With all of the buzzing around and competition, the environment is ripe with opportunity to lead by example! Let's all do our part to encourage good sportsmanship and be the catalyst to help make our county fair be the incredible experience that it's meant to be.

Good luck to all of our Carbon County 4-Hers in all their upcoming competitions and contests! Get out there, do your best, and know that there are a lot of caring adults and your fellow CC 4-Her's cheering you on!!

Make the Best Better!

Work Hard, Have Fun!

As you prepare to bring your animal to the Carbon County Fairgrounds next month there are some things you need to remember! All of this information and more is found in the fair book or in the 4-H newsletter. READ THE FAIR BOOK!! There are specific rules for each species, not included here.

Junior Livestock General Rules & Regulations

1. The purpose of the family tagged animal is for hardship cases. The animal is to be tagged as the family animal in one participant's name at the official tagging. At weigh-in, during the Carbon County Fair, the family tagged animal may be designated to anyone in the family who experiences a hardship case, i.e. their ONLY other animal did not make weight or their ONLY other animal becomes sick before or during fair. The family animal may then be designated and used for that participant, if the family animal is designated at the time of weigh-in for the participant whose name was not on the family animal at tagging time, it cannot go to state fair. This is a State Fair regulation not a county one. All other situations will be at the discretion of the fair board.
2. Exhibitors must comply with the state livestock health regulations.
3. Read carefully the section on General Rules and Regulations in this book.
4. All market animals must be weighed & tagged and/or identified by the ownership date: Cattle - February 1, Sheep, Swine, Goats - June 1
5. Sheep/goat scrapies tag numbers must be registered at weigh-in before dates listed above. Swine exhibitors must prove "point of origin" and all out of state swine will provide health inspection papers at weigh-in dates listed above.
6. All animals shall be entered and shown under only one exhibitor.
7. Exhibitors should show their own livestock. If two animals are in the same class, another club member may show one of the animals. While in the show ring, the person showing the animal must do so without aid.
8. Professional fitting is prohibited, family participation is encouraged.
9. FFA members must have carried the animal as a regular school project during the past school year.
10. When there is no competition between exhibitors in a class, only one premium will be awarded. The judge, in their judgment, will award the prize as the animal deserves.
11. Ribbons will be awarded for the designated placing in each class, in addition to the cash prizes as listed.
12. All stalls and pens will be assigned by superintendent's. All 4-H/FFA market & breeding animals will remain on the grounds for the entire week—excluding breeding rams which will be allowed to go home after their show. Exhibitors not adhering to assignments may be asked to take their animal's home with loss of showing rights.
13. Exhibitors may not advertise market livestock (either sifted or extra animals) for sale during the county fair.
14. Exhibitors must be in good standing with their organization.
15. Exhibitors are responsible for keeping walkways near their animals in livestock barns clean at all times. Herdsmanship will be judged. The winning club in each barn will be given the choice of placement in the barn the next year.

JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SALE

Sale order in each species: 1) Grand Champion, 2) Reserve Champion with remainder as follows:

1. A committee will determine the sale order for each species according to condition and quality. Sub-standard animals will not sell.
2. Number of animals to be sold will be determined at show time.
3. Exhibitors may sell only one animal.
4. Steers sell first, followed by lambs in even years, hogs in odd years, with rabbits, poultry and goats to be placed at a convenient position in the sale.
5. Only wethers and ewe lambs will be sold.
6. Only grand & reserve rabbit meat pens will be allowed to sell.
7. Only species listed above will be sold.
8. Animals must be current projects of members in good standing with their individual organization.
9. Once an exhibitor consigns an animal to the sale, it must go through the auction, fees must be paid and the animal delivered to the buyer.
10. No group or organization may sell an animal unless prior approval of the Fair Board is obtained.
11. The maximum pay weight for animals sold will be 140 pounds for lambs, 285 pounds for hogs and 1350 pounds for steers.
12. A sale administration fee of $25 will be deducted from consignor's check.
13. Halters must be left on the steers and each consignor must take care of animals before and after the sale.
14. Beef consignors must furnish a bill of sale prior to 11 a.m. on sale day.
15. Exhibitors are responsible for being in the sale ring on time. If not, the turn is forfeited, the animal will not sell and the seller will still be responsible for the administration fees.
16. No substitutions of animals will be allowed. The animal sold must be the animal delivered for slaughter or taken live by buyer.
17. Exhibitors taking a sale animal to state fair are responsible for getting animal to designated slaughter house by prearranged date.
18. Every seller must send their written thank you to the Fair Board with a stamped envelope addressed to their buyer before receiving the check for the animal sold. Fair Board will forward thank you to the buyers. Any member not submitting a thank you by October 10th will be paid only market price for that animal and the remainder of the money will be returned to the buyer!
19. Only buyers gifts bought by the Fair Board are to be given during the sale. Sellers are encouraged to make special thank you gifts for their buyers, but they must be given after the actual sale.
20. Add on's are done privately, between the donor and the seller, and are not part of the Junior Livestock Sale.

BAD TECHNIQUES!

STATE FAIR PICTURES

DO NOT USE...

Frames— wooden, plastic, metal or any with stands on the backside of the frame. They are heavy and hard to hang. When they fall, they take out all the pictures below them. You are being judged on the "photo" not on it's mounted presentation.

DO NOT USE...

The following types of tape to hold the strings on the back of your pictures! Masking tape, duct tape, strapping tape, packaging tape, double-sided tape or blue painters tape. They all weaken due to the humidity and heat of the summer days.

*Suggested Use: Strong, clear, Scotch Tape completely securing the parameter of the whole photo!

DO NOT USE...

Weak thin string, yarn, embroidery floss, fishing line, pipe cleaners, coat hangers, ribbon, press-in hooks, or kite string.

*Suggested Use: Strong thick string or framing wire!

PHOTOGRAPHY & VISUAL ARTS

PREFERRED METHODS FOR DISPLAYING PHOTOS AND DRAWINGS AT FAIR

MAT FRAME or BOARD

Securely attach the photo or drawing to the mat frame or mat board.

Mat Board is a solid piece of thick layered paper pressed into a hard board, they come in many colors and sizes. Mat Frame is the same board with the middle section removed, creating a boarder around the photo or drawing.

PLEASE USE THE FOLLOWING CHART TO SELECT THE SIZE OF YOUR MAT FRAMES:

IMAGE SIZE	MAT SIZE
5"x7"	8"x10"
8"x10"	11"x14"
11"x14"	16"x 20"

YOUR PHOTOS AND DRAWINGS ARE BEING JUDGED, NOT THE METHOD OF DISPLAY!

While a nice frame adds character to your photo or drawing, your entry is only being judged on the picture alone.

Save your frame until you get the entry home and then use it!

HANGING METHODS:

You can punch holes in the corner of the Mat Board and thread thick strong string or wire through the holes to create a hanger or punch a hole in the center of the frame with a hole big enough for a peg board hook. (hole at least .365")

NOTE: PEG BOARD HOOKS ARE USED AT COUNTY AND STATE FAIR! Keep that in mind when putting hangers on your pictures.

ADDITIONAL HANGING METHODS:

You can also use solid Mat Board or Foamboard to mount your photos or drawings. Make sure your photos or drawings are affixed to the mounting board properly!

DO NOT USE DOUBLE SIDED TAPE!!!
(The heat of the summer causes it to fail!)

 Suggestion:
Please use double sided FOAM TAPE!

It has very strong adhesive and can be purchased at your local craft stores or hardware stores.

Optional: You can buy Hang Tabs online at Uline, Ebay or Amazon, etc.

Suggested size:
7/8" x 1.25"

Hang Tabs - 7/8 x 1 1/2", Round
