

Professional Development
CentSible Nutrition

County _____

Educator _____

1. Educator participates in a balanced and appropriate variety of professional development opportunities.

2. The number of days devoted to in-service training is within an appropriate range.

3. Professional development goals and training opportunities are discussed during the performance review.

4. Sufficient training opportunities are available to keep subject matter and teaching skills current.

5. Training opportunities are adequately publicized.

6. How long have you worked for Extension?

*Educator refers to Ag & FCS educator, 4-H program associates, horticulture program associates.