

NATRONA COUNTY 4-H "GRATITUDE" EDITION

Dear 4-H Families & Friends:

noun

grat·i·tude | \ 'gra-tə- tüd , - tyüd \ : a feeling of appreciation or thanks

: the state of being grateful

: THANKFULNESS expressed

The word "gratitude" is derived from the Latin word Gratia, which means grace or graciousness. Gratitude is a thankful appreciation for what an individual receives. With gratitude, people acknowledge the goodness in their lives, and as a result, helps them connect to something larger than themselves. Gratitude is strongly and consistently associated with greater happiness, more positive emotions, the appreciation of good experiences, improves health, better coping of adversity, and the building of strong relationships.

Put down your phone and take a moment to be mindful — a moment to reflect... take a walk and observe what's going on around you or really listen when someone is speaking to you. It's not really the material things we have that make us happy so much as our relationships and being grateful for the things we have. The exercise in gratefulness, kindness, and mindfulness is not only beneficial for adults. It's very positive for kids to hear those around them talk about positive things in their lives. In adults as well as kids, we want to promote self-reflection, thinking about positive things in our lives, giving, and being of service to others.

Gratitude practice isn't intended to downplay the worries or challenges that all people face, but rather to help people shift the focus to positivity over negativity and approach life with a different mindset.

Research shows that people who mindfully practice positivity develop a boost in mood and an increased appreciation for what they have in life. Gratitude is a way for people to appreciate what they have instead of always reaching for something new in the hopes it will make them happier or thinking they can't feel satisfied until every physical and material need is met. Gratitude helps people refocus on what they have instead of what they lack.

While anyone can cultivate gratitude independently, doing it as a family or 4-H club encourages accountability by prioritizing gratitude and kindness. We all feel and express gratitude in a myriad of ways. It can be applied to the past (retrieving positive memories and being thankful of past events), the present (not taking good fortune for granted), and the future (maintaining a hopeful and optimistic attitude). Regardless of the level of a person's level of gratitude, it's a quality that every person can cultivate further. (Harvard Health Publishing, Harvard Medical School).

Happy Thanksgiving to all!

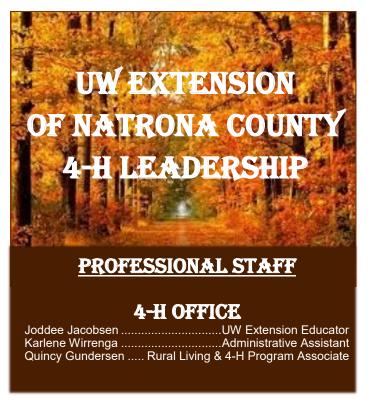

Make the Best Better...

1-24 Project Success: What steps should I follow?

- 1. Select project areas that interest you.
- 2. Make sure you are signed up in ZSUITE for your chosen projects.
- 3. Come up with a project that will help you reach your learning goals. (For example, if you signed up for Sport Fishing and set the goal of learning new casting techniques. A poster with the steps you took to learn the new techniques would be great for the fair.
- 4. Use 4-H Project Curriculum to help you come up with project ideas and learning goals. 4-H Project Curriculum are "workbooks" that kids can do independently or with an adult mentor. They allow youth to go at their own pace and achieve hands-on learning independently. Curriculum can be checked out from the Natrona County Extension Office or purchased at shop4-h.org.
- 5. Begin work in your 4-H project area. Be sure to keep notes when you work on projects, including when you learned things and what you learned, what didn't go as planned, when you shared your project with someone else, etc. Don't forget to take pictures! Later, these notes can be transferred on to your 4-H Record Book.
- 6. Attend any project workshops that may be held in the project areas that you signed up for. Watch the NC 4-H Facebook page, newsletter, and emails sent out from the Extension Office for more information it always includes details of upcoming 4-H activities that are being offered to 4-H members.
- 7. Remember that you should be completing projects as a way to reach the learning goals you have set for yourself not just making something to bring to the fair.
- 8. Call the 4-H Office for help if you get confused, stuck, or run out of ideas! We'd love to help you with ideas.

Especially for Volunteers...

4-H Youth Development - The Club System

- The 4-H club is the core structure where hands-on learning and teaching take place. An organized group of at least five youth, from at least two different families, meet with adult volunteers. With appropriate guidance from volunteers, club members elect their own officers, decide on programs and plan activities.
- It's entirely up to 4-H members what their 4-H club does! 4-H clubs usually focus on one or more topics of the members' choice.

 They conduct project-related activities, for example, a club may have a year-round garden or a shooting sports club may practice at the range. 4-H clubs also do lots of community service both in their project area and where they are needed.
- The purpose of 4-H is to promote positive youth development. If club members and volunteers plan a wide variety of learning activities together, everyone has the chance to grow through experiential learning, developing individual skills and abilities, and participating in community service projects.

The 4-H program year runs October 1 through the following September. Membership in Wyoming 4-H is open to all youth ages 8-18 (age as of January 1), regardless of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, disability, or public assistance. Children ages 5-7 can participate with selected age-appropriate activities through the Cloverbud program.

4-H Club Meetings That Youth Choose to Attend

A 4-H Club is a great venue for learning, group interaction and fun to take place. The meeting environment and meeting components are important aspects to consider when creating a club that youth choose to attend.

4-H Club Meeting Environment: The Environment of a club meeting includes all of the things that make people feel comfortable when they attend.

- Location and Room Set Up: Is your meeting in an easy location to find and get to? If it is not near an outside door, are there signs to guide people? Is the room comfortable? There are a number of ways to set up the room to facilitate your meeting. If you want better discussion, consider putting the chairs in a circle or horseshoe. This arrangement facilitates conversation/business, and the 4-H members can see each other which will help them get to know one another. The members are more apt to stay attentive throughout the meeting as it is more difficult to withdraw or space out without being noticed.
- Making Families Feel Welcome: Greeting people when they first enter the room is a way of making people feel welcome. It can be intimidating to go into a place where you do not know anyone, so that greeting can break the ice. Likewise, even for current member families it is nice to be greeted when you walk in the door. Nametags are a great idea to help people get acquainted. It helps everyone learn names. Clip on nametags for all members and their parents could be in the meeting supply box.
- New Families: May not know the 4-H Pledge, the 4-H Motto or even the procedure that is followed at a 4-H club meeting. Consider a "Greet Sheet" with some of those basic instructions. Also consider putting signs or banner up in the meeting room to help with the pledge, motto, agenda...
- Getting People Involved Right Away: If a family arrives a little early, what is there to do while they wait? What kinds of things can you have going on prior to club meetings to promote and encourage people being on time? IDEAS Judging classes, puzzles, games, worksheets, learning centers, project displays, a sign in sheet or sign-up poster for future activities.

Sarah Torbert, Wyoming State 4-H Volunteer Development Coordinator, has created some short, very informative videos to assist you in making your club a great place to be. Check out this link for topics: http://www.uwyo.edu/4-h/volunteers/additional-trainings.html

2021 ACHIEVEMENT NIGHT UPDATE

Dear NC 4-H Families & Friends,

The Natrona County 4-H Council has made the decision not to hold the 2021 Achievement Awards Night in person this year. COVID is still with us and with the numbers we have to have gather at the 4-H building and properly social distance, and the cost to do it another facility, the decision was made to have clubs present their awards at their own club meeting.

Our NC 4-H youth will be recognized for their achievements. We will follow the same plan as last year and ask that each community club volunteer leader plan with their club a celebration within their club in November or December.

The 4-H office will contact the community club volunteer club leaders when the awards are ready to be picked up. We highly encourage clubs to share pictures via the NC 4-H Facebook page.

This is not what we wanted for this year, but we are confident that you will celebrate achievement and make it memorable and special for all youth involved.

Thank you all for your support!
