WYOMING STATE FAIR EDITION

Dear 4-H Families & Friends,

Now that county fair and state fair have ended, we are winding down the 2021-2022 4-H year. Take a moment and be proud of everything you have accomplished and the strides you have made! As we gear up to start into a new 4-H year, I find myself reflecting on the last year and I know a plethora of others are as well. We are thinking about how we can set more attainable goals, how to make a better plan to achieve our goals, or even how we can get a chance at that grand champion banner or buckle next year. When thinking about reflection, one quote in particular comes to mind.

“Growth without reflection isn’t growth at all.”

I heard this quote during my state officer training from my facilitator, Ashley, last year and it has resonated with me ever since. I encourage all 4-H youth, family, friends, and volunteers to really take in what reflection is and how we can truly grow, because that is what is going to make our 4-H program even more stellar!

Growth can come from many things. A conversation with another individual, observation of objects or actions going on around you, and even just listening to what others have to say. When you start processing the information you have taken in is where the reflection starts and the true growth happens.

Growth: noun: The act or process, or a manner of growing; development; gradual increase: size or stage of development.

Reflection: noun: A fixing of the thoughts on something, careful consideration: an unfavorable remark or observation.

As we are gearing up for the 2022-2023 4-H year, I encourage you to keep this quote in the back of your mind. Think about how you can grow after this last 4-H year and apply it to your jackpot shows next show season, to your next photography session, or even the next visual arts project you are planning on making. This last year I saw some amazing things. Every 4-H member grew in their area and I can’t wait to see how much growth there is this coming 4-H year.

QUINCY'S CORNER

Everyone is back in school and that means we are wrapping up another fair season.

Congratulations to all of our members that competed at the Wyoming State Fair, you represented Natrona County well!

With that being said, it is getting to be that time to start thinking about your projects for next year. I encourage you all to step outside of your norm and try something new. Maybe try leather craft, sport fishing, sewing, or foods. It could even be as simple as making a poster about your animal project. If you do want to try a new project but don't know where to start, give us a call and we can point you in the right direction. I know this county is full of creative minds and I can't wait to see what you all come up with for next year!

QUINCY GOCHENOUR

Now that fair is behind us, it's now time to take some time to show your appreciation to the individuals who have supported you! Thank You notes are a great token of appreciation you can give to your buyers and possible belt buckle sponsors! Here are some ideas of what to put into a good thank you note... Show your gratitude for their contribution to you, how you will use what you received, what you have learned and/or how you have grown this last show season, and most importantly make it personable/thoughtful, and have fun with it! Can't wait to see all the awesome thank you notes at the 4H office!
