4-H PROJECT EXPLORATION

Being a "bucket filler" and celebrating National Random Acts of Kindness Day align perfectly with the 4-H spirit, reminding us that small acts of kindness help strengthen our clubs and communities. Each month we explore a few of the many project areas that Wyoming 4-H has to offer, and at today's meeting we focused on community service—an area that helps Cloverbuds discover new interests, develop skills, and put their hands to larger service just as the 4-H Pledge inspires. As we practice filling buckets and serving others, we encourage families to learn more about all the amazing Wyoming 4-H projects available at www.uwyo.edu/4-h/.
